*A Note from the Desk of the Executive Director of
Association of Supervisory and Administrative School Personnel
"ASASP"*

*January 4, 2022 - January 11, 2023
Fifteenth Edition*

Greetings ASASP Members,

On behalf of the staff of ASASP, I would like to wish you all a very happy, healthy and most prosperous new year. I hope that your break, although short, was restful, enjoyable and pleasant. As you return this week to welcome your staff and students back to the building, keep in mind that we are quickly approaching the middle of the school year. It will be over before you know it, but in the meantime, I encourage you to take every opportunity possible to find solace in your day. The burden that you bear each day is not to be taken lightly and neither is the stress that it can cause.

Spend some time making sure you are okay first, you deserve it!

Please read and share the Parker Pages, I know it's a lot sometimes, but you need to know what is going on, so this is one medium we use to provide some insight. Please don't hesitate to contact the office if you have a question that you need answered. We will assist you any way we can.

Close your door, breathe and take a few minutes to sit down, listen and regroup and get your mind ready for whatever comes next.

Jeffery J. Parker
Executive Director

Some of PGCPS' finest, most dedicated, disciplined, enthusiastic and innovative administrators who are proud to serve in Prince George's County Public Schools

Clinton Grove Elementary School: Principal Renee Hall-McNeil, CSEP Coordinator Torrie Ford, and Community School Coordinator Ashlie Hardie

Your website resource tab has a three links. The link that leads to Helpful Websites provides a smorgasbord of fun and academic websites to help students work independently on math, reading and history. Funbrain, Stories to Grow By, StoryPlace are just a few of the extensive list you have listed for students to improve their skills and increase their knowledge.

Hyattsville Elementary School: Principal Richard T. McKee, Assistant Principal Duff Dirkin and Community School Coordinator Leandro Pavon

I came across your website, and noticed that you actually have a direct tab for Community Schools on the front page. Once I clicked on the tab, it led to a wealth of knowledge about the Six Pillars of Community Schools:

1. Expanded and Culturally Relevant Curriculum
2. Effective Teaching Practices
3. Inclusive Leadership
4. Multi-tiered System of Support
5. Family and Community Partnerships
6. Community Support Services

After that it provides inviting links to critical matters like attendance, mental health, volunteering and community resources. Great job team, I'm loving it!!

Walker Mill Middle School: Principal Erin Cribbs, Assistant Principals Byonka Gregory, Tiffany Johnson and Dwayne L. Martin

As I looked at school websites for interesting and innovating tidbits of information. I found something that separated you from the rest. Your school history located under the "About Us Tab" is to be commended. The school history is brief but clear, concise and inclusive of every leader of the school since its existence. Our children and community need to know, understand and appreciate the work and dedication that has gone into creating a nurturing academic environment. Keep up the great work at WMMS!

Frederick Douglas High School: Principal Nichols, Assistant Principals Sterling Brooks and Cynthia Thomas

I see I missed your regularly scheduled Coffee with the Principal meeting this past Tuesday. Scheduling a virtual open forum for parents to have access to is a great way to gain insight and minimize complaints/concerns. No questions asked parents just being able to log in at specific day and time and access you is a brave and innovative step in partnering with your community.

Unit 3 Shout Out:

The following are 3 of the hardest working members in PGCPs and they are ASASP members, they see to it that each and every I is dotted and T is crossed as they have dedicated themselves to the work that makes PGCPs go round and round each day:

Louis Wilson III – Human Resources Officer, Sasscer Building
Dawn Holton – Capital Programs/Supervisor , L. Wilson Sr. Facility
Carl Schuettler – Transportation Supervisor, Skyline Administration

Shout to the many Supervisors and Administrators for providing knowledgeable, program planning and support.

Welcome New ASASP Members:

We would like to take a moment to WELCOME all our new Unit II and Unit III members who joined ASASP. CONGRATULATIONS on your new appointments/positions. We wish you all the best!
